

Family Talk Time

A Daily Lenten Activity for Families

What is Lent?

Lent prepares us for Easter! It begins on Ash Wednesday and ends the Saturday before Easter Sunday. That's a little over 40 days!

During Lent, we think about how much Jesus gave up for us. You see, Jesus is God's special Son. Though he was God, Jesus became human. Jesus gave up his life so we can be freed from the power of sin and death. (Jesus' friend, Paul, explains this more in Philippians 2:5-11. Check it out!)

During Lent, we remember Jesus' sacrifice for all people, and we choose to give up things, too. Some people choose to fast during Lent. That means they give up things like food, TV, or video games and choose to spend that time thinking and talking about Jesus instead. It's a little way for us to sacrifice something for Jesus to show our love and gratitude.

Want to give it a try with your family? Okay! Great idea!

During this season of Lent, carve out 10 minutes each day to spend time thinking about Jesus and talking with your family. It's okay if you miss a day or two — after all, things happen. But the time you do spend together with Jesus is sure to be sweeter than your favorite Easter candy!

Here's what you'll do:

Cut apart these prompts and choose one to read and talk about each day. Each of the questions will help you focus on Jesus and talk about things that matter to you as you live your life as his friend.

As a family, choose a special time to spend with Jesus and each other each day of Lent. It could be at breakfast, dinner, bedtime, drive time, or anytime! (Although teeth brushing time might be a little tricky. It's hard to talk and brush at the same time.)

Plus, consider making these special talks even more fun with these ideas!

Conversation Box

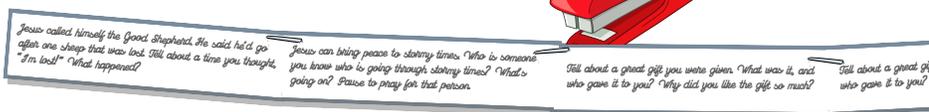

Cut apart each question, fold each paper strip several times, then put them all in a special container. It could be a box, some socks, a bowl or a hole, a hat or...something like that! Then as a family, take turns selecting a question to talk about each day.

Easter Count UP!

As a family, cut apart one question to talk about each day. After each conversation, staple the paper strips together to build a paper chain! Tape your chain to the ceiling or hang it over a doorway. Then watch it grow longer and longer as Easter approaches. Then, on Easter Sunday, break the chain apart as you celebrate how Jesus' death and resurrection breaks the chains of sin and death and frees us to live forever as God's friends.

Egg-cellent Talks

Cut apart each question, fold each paper strip several times, then place them inside plastic Easter eggs — one question per egg. Place the eggs in a basket (you'll need a big one!) then take turns choosing an egg each day. Then, ta-da! Open the egg and talk about the question with your family!
